Sports Days

The weather has been kind to us and all Sports Days went ahead as planned. Well done to all of our children and thanks to the many spectators who came to join us.

Warning about Live.ly mobile app

Merseyside Police have issued warnings about Live.ly app, the fastest growing social media streaming app available. It enables users to live stream videos of themselves, and watch videos from other users. It has limited security features and any video can be recorded and shared without permission or knowledge of the person who made it. Please be aware of which apps your child is using, how those apps work and how they are being used. On Thursday 8th June, Channel 4 News broadcasted information on this app.

Lego Card Swaps

A number of children are coming into school with sealed envelopes with cards or stickers enclosed. Please could we request that sealed envelopes are not brought into school, either loose cards swapped face to face or exchange envelopes outside of school.
