KS2 Dinner Money

If you wish your child to stay for a school meal, they must be paid for in advance on Monday each week or if you wish, pay for a half term. The cost of a school meal is now £2.00 per day, £10.00 per week, £64.00 for this half term. Menus are available either on the school website or from the school office.

Change of Details

Could you please ensure you inform the school of any changes of address, email address or phone numbers that may have changed over the summer holidays, particularly mobile numbers as these are the point of contact in case of emergency.

After- school Provision

Could we please ask all parents to ensure after-school provision are informed if they have made alternate arrangements for their child being collected from school or if they are absent. The school have been inundated with requests to locate children missing from pick up lists at the end of the day.
