

Dear Parent/Guardian

Are you interested in training to become a primary school teacher?

Capital Teaching School based in Sefton is a new, exciting venture which aims to identify and train the next generation of teachers. It is supported by the Department for Education and Liverpool John Moores University.

We are providing Initial Teacher Training (ITT) which, most importantly, will be school-based at one of our partner schools in Sefton. We have a wide range of Sefton primary schools working in partnership with us.

This approach is really important because it means we can choose the very best talent and develop first class teachers - ultimately helping us to deliver the best outcomes for pupils in our schools across Sefton.

Capital Teaching School has vacancies now for training from September 2018. We would be interested to hear from you if you think teaching is for you. Or, do you know someone, perhaps a friend or relative, who is interested in getting into teaching?

We're looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential.

Interested? If so, arrange a chat with our administrator, Angela Davies, to find out more. Contact Angela by email admin@capitalteachingschool.sefton.org.uk or by phone 0151 924 5751 to arrange a date and time.

We can also help with applications and even arrange school experience if you want a taster of what teaching is like.

If you want to know more about becoming a teacher visit www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching. For further information about Capital Teaching School and ITT visit our website capitalteachingschool.com

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely
